*Living with IgAN means... [Please share your personal experience here]

📢 I'm excited to share something meaningful with all of you: I've recently joined IgAN Friends, a community of people who share the IgA Nephropathy (IgAN) journey.

IgAN Friends is a space built by IgANers for IgANers to connect, share experiences, exchange knowledge, and advocate for change together.

I'm looking forward to contributing to this incredible community and learning from all its international members. If you're interested in this space, let's connect – I'd love to share more!

Are you living with IgAN, too? Share your experiences and meet others - join IgAN Friends today!
